Detailed description of the musical score: The score is for a symphony orchestra and a men's choir. It is written in 4/4 time and B-flat major. The instruments are arranged in a standard orchestral layout. The strings (Violins I, Violins II, Violas, Cellos, and Double Basses) are at the top, followed by the guitar, timpani, tuba, and treble strings. The woodwinds (flute, oboe, bassoon) and brass (trumpet, horn) are in the middle. The keyboard and xylophone are at the bottom. The men's choir is at the very bottom. The score is divided into four measures. The first measure shows the strings and guitar playing a pizzicato pattern. The second measure shows the strings and guitar continuing the pattern, while the timpani and tuba play a sustained note. The third measure shows the strings and guitar continuing the pattern, while the timpani and tuba play a sustained note. The fourth measure shows the strings and guitar continuing the pattern, while the timpani and tuba play a sustained note. The men's choir enters in the fourth measure with a vocal line.
